

An Introduction to Peri-urban Deer Management

A 'pilot' one-day course highlighting the considerations and requirements for those engaged in the management of deer in and around towns

At: The Ally McCoist Centre, Quarry Road, East Kilbride G75 9LW

On: Saturday 22 April from 10.15 – 12.30 and 13.15 – 15.30hrs.

The course is led by Andrew Treadaway, SRUC Barony College, drawing extensively on material from the publication Controlling Urban Deer by David Quarrell, Chair, South Lanarkshire Deer Group.

The course comprises classroom-based presentations and covers all aspects in relation to deer management on the edge of towns.

An LDNS Certificate of Attendance will be awarded.

This event is free. To reserve a place a £10 deposit is required payable to Lowland Deer Network Scotland, c/o Dalhousie Estates, Brechin DD9 6SG. This is refundable on attendance, but non-refundable for no-shows or cancellations after 15 April 2017

Sandwiches and soft drinks will be provided at the lunchtime break.
